People having an Aliyah

(saying the blessings before and after the Torah portion is read):

You may choose the honorees for Aliyot 1, 2, 5, 6 and 7. Traditionally, parents take the 7th aliyah, so they may be present on the bimah for their child's bar/bat mitzvah aliyah. For each person so honored, we need English and Hebrew names. A Hebrew name includes the Hebrew name of that person and the Hebrew names of the person's parents; e.g. Ya'akov ben (son of) Yitzchak V'Rivka. All Torah honorees must wear a head covering and tallit for their honor.
